In a world that is often loud and chaotic, it can be difficult to find a place of peace and quiet to reflect on the deeper questions of life. Beneath the Noise is a website and community that provides just that space. It is a platform for writers and readers to connect, share their work, and explore the depths of human experience.

The Origins of Beneath the Noise

Beneath the Noise was founded in 2010 by a group of writers who were dissatisfied with the state of the literary world. They felt that there was a lack of opportunities for writers to connect with each other and with their readers. They also felt that the literary world was often too focused on commercial success, and not enough on the quality of the writing.

Beneath the Noise was created as a way to address these concerns. It is a non-profit organization that is dedicated to providing a platform for writers and readers to connect, share their work, and explore the depths of human experience.

What Beneath the Noise Offers

Beneath the Noise offers a variety of resources for writers and readers, including:

- A free online journal that publishes poetry, prose, and philosophy
- A community forum where writers and readers can connect and discuss their work
- A blog that features articles on writing, creativity, and the human experience
- A series of online workshops and classes

Beneath the Noise also hosts a variety of events throughout the year, including readings, workshops, and conferences. These events are a great way to connect with other writers and readers, and to learn more about the craft of writing.

The Beneath the Noise Community

The Beneath the Noise community is a vibrant and supportive group of writers and readers from all over the world. The community is what makes Beneath the Noise so special. It is a place where writers can feel supported and encouraged, and where readers can find new and exciting voices.
